Nebraska Property Tax Request Act FAQs

Question: What political subdivisions are impacted by Nebraska Property Tax Request Act?

ANSWER: This legislation only includes the four largest taxing authorities in the state, which include Counties, Cities, Schools, and Community Colleges.

Question: Who is responsible for mailing out the postcards about the Joint Public Hearing?

ANSWER: Political subdivision will request county clerk to organize a joint public hearing. County clerk will notify each political subdivision and the county assessor of the date, time, and location of the hearing. County assessor will be responsible for mailing the postcards to all affected property taxpayers at least seven calendar days before the joint public hearing.

Question: Who is to pay for the costs associated with the developing and mailing of the postcards?

ANSWER: The cost of creating and mailing the postcards, including staff time, materials, and postage, shall be charged proportionately to divided among the political subdivisions participating in the joint public hearing based on the total number of parcels in each participating political subdivision.

Question: When a school district or community college encompasses multiple cities or counties, what is the protocol?

ANSWER: Example: Tri-County Public Schools

If Tri-County is going to see increased revenue above the allowed growth percentage (2% plus the political subdivision's real growth percentage) under the passage of LB 644 (§77-1633) they would notify the Jefferson County Clerk (on/before Sep. 5) to set a date (between Sep. 17-29), time, and location for the joint public hearing to be held. The Jefferson County Clerk will immediately notify (on/before Sep. 10) the political subdivision and the Jefferson County Assessor of the date, time, and address of the hearing. Jefferson County Assessor will proceed with preparing and mailing postcards (seven days prior to hearing) for those residents that live in Jefferson County. The political subdivision will have to transmit the joint public hearing information to the Gage and Saline County Assessors. Who will then proceed with preparing and mailing postcards (seven days prior to hearing) for their residents in their county.

Question: If a political subdivision fails to comply, will that affect those in compliance?

ANSWER: A political subdivision that has complied with the Property Tax Request Act shall not have its property tax request invalidated due to any other political subdivision's failure to comply with the Property Tax Request Act.

Question: What is meant by the term 'growth' in the following statement "Allowable growth percentage means a percentage equal to the sum of two percent plus the political subdivision's real growth percentage."

ANSWER: Real growth percentage means the percentage obtained by dividing the political subdivision's real growth value by the political subdivision's total real property valuation from the prior year.

Real growth value is the increase in a political subdivision's real property valuation from the prior year to the current year due to any improvement(s) that increase the value of the property, annexation, and/or a change in the use of real property; The annual increase in the excess value for any tax increment financing project located in the political subdivision.
