ALICAP RETURNING $2.15 MILLION TO ITS MEMBERS

The ALICAP Board of Trustees is proud to announce that it is returning $2.15 million back to member school districts and educational service units (ESUs) for the 2019-2020 school year in the form of a dividend. This most recent dividend grosses the total dollars returned to over $23 million since 1990.

Since its formation in 1990, the ALICAP insurance program has provided its member Nebraska schools/ESUs with Work Comp, Property, Liability, Errors and Omissions, Crime, Auto and more, all in one package. ALICAP is only one option for school insurance coverage, but is different than the typical insurance provider as it is school specific. Because of that ALICAP is constantly adding coverages which pertain to schools like cyber liability, flood, pollution and mold to name a few. ALICAP follows six fundamental promises:

- 1) Stabilize the marketplace
- 2) Provide enhanced coverage
- 3) Supply a customized loss control program
- 4) Deliver claims management and allow district input
- 5) Offer competitive pricing
- 6) Return surplus to the owner districts/ESUs

Returning dividends to the members is a key characteristic that sets ALICAP apart from the typical insurance provider. Each member district/ESU is an owner of the ALICAP pool, and when the pool has a surplus from any given year, those dollars may be returned to the owners, instead of the traditional insurance provider's stockholders.

Did You Know: ALICAP's member districts/ESUs have a $500 property deductible? ALICAP is able to maintain this extremely low deductible, all while continuing to offer broad coverage at a very competitive annual premium. If your district/ESU isn't with ALICAP, give us a call and take a look. We'd be happy to provide you with a bid.

To learn more, visit www.ALICAP.org, or contact Megan Boldt, at mboldt@NASBonline.org.

ALICAP provides coverage to 169 school districts and ESUs in Nebraska, and is governed by school board members and administrators representing its participating members.

VISION

#liveNASB

Your Board Policy Manual holds the collective decisions of your School Board to provide expectations and direction to your district. It serves as the plan by which you govern your district and move it toward the goals and vision you and your staff have created together.

Updating and reorganizing your board policy manual while keeping previous decisions of the board in place is a time intensive process. Each district has a different history and, over the years, has made numerous important local board decisions differently than its neighboring districts. NASB provides the only Policy Update and Customization Service that keeps those previous decisions in place rather than throwing out your policy manual to replace it with a generic one.

Unfortunately, your policy manual may have obsolete, inaccurate or unnecessary information that misleads or confuses your board members and staff. Worse yet, it may be missing important policy revisions that have occurred over the past several years and are critically important in setting expectations for the governance of your district or the direction of board discussions.

In addition, the Nebraska Department of Education, under the direction of the USDE, is taking a closer look than ever before at the policies of individual boards. Many of the most recently revised policies are quite lengthy and detailed due to the Every Student Succeeds Act and will be receiving audits from state or federal agencies.

The goal of the NASB Policy Customization Service is to create a completed, customized policy manual with legal referencing and indexing that reflects in writing how your particular district actually operates. It should serve as a starting point on many of the important questions that come before the board over the course of the year.

This is a great time to consider beginning a board manual customization to give your board and administrators a much more accurate, complete and user-friendly board policy manual for the future.

*To schedule a manual customization or get more information, contact

ESU 5 MENTAL HEALTH PROGRAM PARTNERS WITH UNL

LEADERSHIP

ESU 5 began implementing mental health supports the start of the 2017-2018 school year, which serves ten schools districts over Gage, Jefferson, and Thayer counties. The piloted mental health program was developed by ESU 5's mental health coordinator and psychotherapist, Jen McNally. Due to the overwhelming positive response, the 2018-2019 school year, ESU 5 hired two additional mental health staff in therapist Cole Stark and school psychologist Jamie Mapp to meet the needs of districts, adding additional support days and two new districts requesting mental health supports.

INNOVATION

ENGAGEMENT

#liveNASB

During the 2018-2019 school year, the three mental health therapists provided one-on-one support to over 150 students with a variety of mental health needs. Based on the large number of students who have experienced a traumatic event, the program has added a national certification, Trauma Focused-Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT), that has been empirically researched, and found to be a successful modality. Also, to assist with the increasing number of students who display signs of suicide, Jen McNally became a QPR Institute instructor in 2018, and Cole Stark finished his training in 2019. They both train school district staff and students on suicide awareness. Beginning the 2019-2020 school year, ESU 5 will have four clinicians supporting 8 of 10 ESU 5 school districts. Kelsey Koranda was hired this past spring to help fill the needs of three school districts adding additional service days each week, as well as an additional school district requesting services.

The continued positive impacts of the program have garnered attention from school districts and other ESU's across the state. ESU 5's mental health program has recently been featured in various news segments, highlighting the impacts of the program. The work this program is achieving with school districts and communities, has also attracted the attention of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. ESU 5 has begun an exciting partnership with two internationally recognized UNL professors: Dr. Susan Swearer, Willa Cather Professor of Educational Psychology, and a researcher for Lady Gaga's Born this Way Foundation; and Dr. Kara Viesca, Associate Professor of Teaching, Learning and Teacher Education professors and researchers with UNL. The research will look at the 'wellness for all' approach, developed by McNally and her team, in hopes to replicate this mental health program on a larger scale.

In addition, McNally will be working with UNL's Teacher Scholars Academy. The Teacher Scholars Academy's aim "is to prepare teachers who will be the backbone of school transformation, reflective thinkers who will continue to grow and develop beyond their degree." McNally will be presenting at the October 29th event hosted by UNL's Teacher Scholars Academy, on her nationally recognized self-care presentation for educators, "When Coffee Isn't Enough."

ESU 5 anticipates continued expansion of this program, and is looking forward to continuing its mission of helping students and educators maintain mental wellness in and out of the classroom.

For more information on the ESU 5 mental health program, contact Jen McNally, jmcnally@esu5.org.

NASB FROM SCHOOL BOARD TO THE STATE CAPITOL

Did you know ... 10 of the current 49 Senators first sat in your chair as a school board member? This is the third installment where we sit down with a former sbm now serving as a state senator to learn about the transition, how their experience on the school board has helped them inside the Capitol, and get their thoughts on some of the key items regarding public education in Nebraska.

Next up is Senator Justin Wayne.

Senator Wayne was elected to the Nebraska State Legislature in 2016 to represent District 13 in northwest Omaha. Prior to being elected to the Legislature, Senator Wayne served on the Omaha Public School Board, serving as President in 2013-14. Now, on to the questions ...

Starting off, which is more fun school board or state legislature?

Legislature. There's more interaction with my constituents, and I like the ability to work and build coalitions to get things done for Nebraska.

How did your experience as a school board member help you this past year?

I came in understanding the importance of education. OPS is the biggest human capital producer in Nebraska, so I am able to keep the importance of education at the forefront.

What have you learned as a Senator that you wish you would have known when you served as a school board member?

How complicated things are, and the various aspects of getting things done.

What do current school board members need to know about interacting with senators?

Talk to us. Keep us up to date. Your voices and experience are valuable in how we make decisions.

How has your perspective of school finance changed as a result of your new role?

It hasn't. That was an area I focused on as a school board member.

When you were a school board member, what priority issue(s) did you want the Legislature to address?

The education funding formula. It is still a big issue.

What are your priorities as it relates to education?

Restructuring the education formula and state aid/funding. I also want to look at school consolidations and efficiencies across the entire state.

How can a current school board member support you in advancing areas of mutual importance?

Email, calls and letters. Any and all communication is good communication.

As we jump into another school year, we celebrate one of the areas that districts have enabled students to succeed both in and outside of the classroom during the 2017-2018 school year: nutrition. The number of students impacted by school nutrition last year was far reaching:

- Students ate more than 11.7 million breakfasts and 33.7 million lunches in schools across Nebraska
- Over 142,300 or 42% of Nebraska students received free or reduced-price meals
- More schools served breakfast at no-cost to families, totaling 134 schools (13 more than from 2016-2017)
- The average 1-year participation of schools that switched to an alternative breakfast model increased by 43%

(Nebraska School Breakfast Report 2017-18, Nebraska Appleseed)

Alternative breakfast school models, such as “breakfast in the classroom” or “grab and go,” integrate school breakfast as part of the school day, enabling more students to start their day without the distraction of hunger. Such models have proven to be effective in bypassing common barriers to breakfast participation such as social stigmas and late arrivals to school. Furthermore, schools across the state have utilized a variety of funding methods such as Community Eligibility Provision (CEP), Provision 2, or nonpricing, to help offer breakfast and lunch at no cost, increase school meal participation, receive more federal reimbursement, and streamline meal service.

If you are curious how your district is doing with school breakfast participation and how they compare with other districts across the state, access the interactive School Breakfast Map at neappleseed.org/breakfast. For additional information on how to implement a more effective breakfast model, contact Melissa Lusk at mlusk@NASBonline.org.

... ALICAP & INSURANCE

ALICAP's 2019-2020 Billing Statements were mailed on August 5th.

If your district/ESU is an ALICAP member and you'd like an electronic copy of your billing statement, contact Megan Boldt at mboldt@nasbonline.org. Take note, there is another $2.15M dividend being credited to the ALICAP members via those billing statements.

Thanks, Megan!

... POLICY

NDE's Rule 91 has been updated to require that each district's Transportation Safety Plan shall also address general guidelines for confirming a driver's ability to conduct daily tasks and emergency evacuations.

This was prompted in part by a tragic bus accident in Iowa where the driver (needing a walker to get around) lacked the physical ability to significantly help students with an evacuation of the bus. As schools are reviewing requirements for their transportation drivers, this should always be a consideration and needs to be mentioned in board policy.

... WHOLE CHILD

In 2010, Congress passed the Healthy, Hunger-Free Kids Act of 2010 (Sec. 204 of Public Law 111-296), and added new provisions for local school wellness policies related to implementation, evaluation, and publicly reporting on progress of local school wellness policies. Local wellness policies are an important tool for parents and school districts in promoting student wellness, preventing and reducing childhood obesity, and providing assurance that school meal nutrition guidelines meet the minimum federal school meal standards.

School districts nation-wide had to fully comply by June 30, 2017 and must reassess every three years. School districts must assess their wellness policy at least once every three years on the extent to which schools are in compliance with the district policy, the extent to which the local wellness policy compares to model local school wellness policies, and the progress made in attaining the goals of the local wellness policy. School districts must make this assessment available to the public.
